Renewal of the Church

Hebrews 9:11-15

But when Christ came as high priest of the good things that have come to be, passing through the greater and more perfect tabernacle not made by hands, that is, not belonging to this creation, he entered once for all into the sanctuary, not with the blood of goats and calves but with his own blood, thus obtaining eternal redemption. For if the blood of goats and bulls and the sprinkling of a heifer's ashes can sanctify those who are defiled so that their flesh is cleansed, how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal spirit offered himself unblemished to God, cleanse our consciences from dead works to worship the living God. For this reason he is mediator of a new covenant: since a death has taken place for deliverance from transgressions under the first covenant, those who are called may receive the promised eternal inheritance.

John 10:22-42

The feast of the Dedication was then taking place in Jerusalem. It was winter. And Jesus walked about in the temple area on the Portico of Solomon. So the Jews gathered around him and said to him, "How long are you going to keep us in suspense? If you are the Messiah, tell us plainly." Jesus answered them, "I told you and you do not believe. The works I do in my Father's name testify to me. But you do not believe, because you are not among my sheep. My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish. No one can take them out of my hand. My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all, and no one can take them out of the Father's hand. The Father and I are one." The Jews again picked up rocks to stone him. Jesus answered them, "I have shown you many good works from my Father. For which of these are you trying to stone me?" The Jews answered him, "We are not stoning you for a good work but for blasphemy. You, a man, are making yourself God." Jesus answered them, "Is it not written in your law, 'I said, "You are gods"'? If it calls them gods to whom the word of God came, and scripture cannot be set aside, can you say that the one whom the Father has consecrated and sent into the world blasphemes because I said, 'I am the Son of God'? If I do not perform my Father's works, do not believe me; but if I perform them, even if you do not believe me, believe the works, so that you may realize (and understand) that the Father is in me and I am in the Father." (Then) they tried again to arrest him; but he escaped from their power. He went back across the Jordan to the place where John first baptized, and there he remained. Many came to him and said, "John performed no sign, but everything John said about this man was true." And many there began to believe in him

FAMILY PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Before an icon or before a meal

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and forever. Amen.

O God, you desire that each of us follow your invitation to holiness.

Stir up in the hearts of your people
the grace of a holy vocation.
Grant to us, through the prayer of your Immaculate Mother, Mary, and your foster father, Joseph,
the willingness and generosity to give our time, talents, and our very lives to the service of our Lord God and Savior, Jesus Christ, and his Holy Church.

May men and women be inspired to serve as faithful priests, brothers, sisters, deacons, subdeacons,
holy married couples, parents and generous single people.

May they share the truth and beauty of our Catholic Faith,
so that all people
may know you better, love you more,
and serve you well.

O Lord our God to you be glory, now and forever. Amen.

(Recite the Our Father, the Hail Mary and the Glory Be together)

DID YOU KNOW?

Your heart beats about 100,000 times every day, without you having to think about it! While you sleep, work, pray, or go about your daily activities, your heart keeps beating, pumping thousands of liters of blood throughout your body.
Over an average lifetime, that little heart may beat more than three billion times! Yet how often do we stop to appreciate this extraordinary gift?
Every heartbeat is a reminder that life itself is a blessing. We may not have control over tomorrow, but we can choose how to live today.
The next time you feel your heartbeat, take a moment to thank God for the amazing gift of being alive!

Pastor's Corner: Don't Postpone the Good You Can Do Today

There is something I have come to realize more and more in life: we often live as though we have all the time in the world.
We tell ourselves, "I'll call tomorrow," "I'll visit next week," or "One of these days, I'll make things right." And before we know it, weeks become months, months become years, and sometimes the opportunity is gone.
How often have we wished we had spent a little more time with someone we loved, or said something that was left unsaid?
Jesus reminds us, "Do not worry about tomorrow; tomorrow will take care of itself" (Matthew 6:34).
My dear friends, life is a precious gift, but it is also fragile. The people we love will not always be with us, and neither will we always be with them. That is why we should never take one another for granted. If your parents are still with you, spend time with them. If you have a friend you haven't spoken to in a while, pick up the phone. If there is someone you need to forgive, why wait? And if you have been distant from God, remember that He is always waiting to welcome you back.
We cannot change yesterday, and we do not know what tomorrow will bring. But we can make today a little more beautiful through the love we give, the forgiveness we offer, and the time we share.

One day, we may discover that the little things we kept putting off were actually the things that mattered most.
