Galatians 4:21-5:1

The Allegory of Hagar and Sarah

Brothers and Sisters:

Tell me, you who desire to be subject to the law, will you not listen to the law? For it is written that Abraham had two sons, one by a slave woman and the other by a free woman. One, the child of the slave, was born according to the flesh; the other, the child of the free woman, was born through the promise. Now this is an allegory: these women are two covenants. One woman, in fact, is Hagar, from Mount Sinai, bearing children for slavery. Now Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia and corresponds to the present Jerusalem, for she is in slavery with her children. But the other woman corresponds to the Jerusalem above; she is free, and she is our mother. For it is written, "Rejoice, you childless one, you who bear no children, burst into song and shout, you who endure no birth pangs; for the children of the desolate woman are more numerous than the children of the one who is married." Now you, my friends, are children of the promise, like Isaac. But just as at that time the child who was born according to the flesh persecuted the child who was born according to the Spirit, so it is now also. But what does the scripture say? "Drive out the slave and her child; for the child of the slave will not share the inheritance with the child of the free woman." So then, friends, we are children, not of the slave but of the free woman. For freedom Christ has set us free. Stand firm, therefore, and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery. Praise be to God always!

Luke 1:57-66

The Birth of John the Baptist

The Evangelist said:

Now the time came for Elizabeth to give birth, and she bore a son. Her neighbors and relatives heard that the Lord had shown his great mercy to her, and they rejoiced with her. On the eighth day they came to circumcise the child, and they were going to name him Zechariah after his father. But his mother said, "No; he is to be called John." They said to her, "None of your relatives has this name." Then they began motioning to his father to find out what name he wanted to give him. He asked for a writing tablet and wrote, "His name is John." And all of them were amazed. Immediately his mouth was opened and his tongue freed, and he began to speak, praising God. Fear came over all their neighbors, and all these things were talked about throughout the entire hill country of Judea. All who heard them pondered them and said, "What then will this child become?" For, indeed, the hand of the Lord was with him. This is the truth. Peace be with you.

“Gathered in the one spirit, breathing as though with two lungs – of the East and of the West – and burning with the love of Christ in one heart – having two ventricles.”

(Sacri Canones; Pope John Paul II)

DID YOU KNOW that for Catholics united with the Pope in Rome, there is an amazing unity even within the reality of cultural diversity? The Catholic Church, comprised of 21 Eastern Churches and 1 Western Church (Latin Rite Roman Catholic), is a communion of Churches, with the Pope as the visible head. One of the Eastern Catholic Churches is the Maronite Church. She has Her own hierarchy composed of a Patriarch, who is Her father and head, and over forty Bishops who shepherd the many Eparchies (Dioceses) in Lebanon, the Middle East, and throughout the world. The Patriarch governs the Church in a synodal manner with his body of bishops as is customary in the Eastern Churches. Each Catholic Church practices a common faith according to one of the six major traditions.

The Maronite Church follows the Antiochene Tradition. All Churches within the communion of Catholic Churches share the same:

Dogmatic Faith. Seven Mysteries (Sacraments). Moral Teachings.
Unity with the Pope of Rome.

All Catholics believe the same truths of the faith, yet worship differently. One could say they share the same essence of faith, but have a different expression of that faith. Each Church embraces its own culture and tradition to express Her faith in Jesus the Risen Lord. Each of the Catholic Churches: Encompasses a unique liturgy, theology, spirituality and discipline; Is characterized by Her own cultural and linguistic tradition; Is guided by a Patriarch, Major Archbishop, Metropolitan or other hierarchy, who along with their Synod of Bishops are in full communion with the Pope, the Successor of Saint Peter in Rome.

Ten Lessons from this week's Gospel

1. Divine Intervention in Infertility: The conception and birth of John the Baptist to the elderly and previously barren Elizabeth highlight God's ability to intervene miraculously, emphasizing the sanctity of life.
2. God's Perfect Plan: The timing of John's birth according to God's plan emphasizes the divine order and sovereignty of God in orchestrating events for the fulfillment of His purposes.
3. The Power of Naming: The significance of naming John, contrary to family tradition, underscores the importance of names and the role they play in God's plan. In Catholic tradition, names often carry deep spiritual meaning.
4. Sacrament of Baptism: John's name means "God is gracious," and his later role as a baptizer connects to the sacrament of Baptism in the Catholic Church, symbolizing cleansing, repentance, and entry into the faith community.
5. The Joy of New Life: The joy expressed by Elizabeth and the community at John's birth mirrors the joy experienced in the Catholic Church at the birth of new members through Baptism and the Sacraments.
6. Role of the Holy Spirit: The Holy Spirit played a crucial role in John's conception and ministry. This underscores the importance of the Holy Spirit in the life of believers, guiding, empowering, and sanctifying them.
7. The Importance of Praise and Thanksgiving: Zechariah's Benedictus (Luke 1:68-79), a hymn of praise, is a significant part of this passage. It teaches Catholics the importance of offering praise and thanksgiving to God for His blessings.
8. Recognition of God's Signs: The neighbors and relatives recognized the divine significance of John's birth. This emphasizes the importance of discerning and acknowledging God's signs and wonders in our lives.
9. Humility and Obedience: Zechariah's initial doubt and subsequent humility teach the importance of humility and obedience in the face of God's promises, a virtue deeply emphasized in Catholic teachings.
10. Preparation for Christ: John the Baptist's role as the forerunner preparing the way for the Messiah aligns with the Catholic emphasis on Advent, a season of preparation for the coming of Christ, both in the celebration of Christmas and in anticipation of His second coming.

The Straight Furrow

Key Word: Furrow

Verse: Prepare the way of the Lord, make his paths straight. Mark 1:3b

Sam was the envy of all his friends. His dad was a farmer, so he drove a tractor. On rare occasions Sam was allowed to sit in the tractor cab and even help drive. Sam's dad was entering a plowing competition, so he was spending quite a lot of time in the tractor practicing plowing in straight lines. Sam couldn't see why it mattered whether or not furrows were straight. He just liked to sit in the tractor and drive, without keeping a straight line.

When the day of the plowing competition came, Sam found he was as excited as anybody. It was a really great day out, with lots to see and do. Before the plowing competition there were sheepdog trials, the heavy horses, and all sorts of riding and jumping competitions.

At last the time of the plowing competition arrived, and Sam found his heart beating fast for his father. Some of the entrants were very good, with hardly a wavy furrow among them. Even so, Sam knew his father was best of all. Sure enough, Sam's dad drove a perfect furrow, straight and true, and he won the Cup. Sam was so proud and excited. "I knew you'd do it, Dad," he told his father. "Ah," said his dad. "But do you know why?"

Sam shrugged. "Because you were best, that's why," he answered.

His dad smiled, and shook his head. "No, of there were lots of others who were just as good as I was. I won because I believed in what I was doing, and that gave me the edge."

"How do you mean?" asked Sam.

"I believe it's essential to drive a straight furrow," explained his dad. "You see, a straight furrow gives the seeds the best possible chance to grow. They're spaced out properly. As soon as you get a wrinkle in the furrow, the seeds get bunched up and can't grow so well. I need my seeds to grow well so that they produce a good crop for harvest. I haven't been practicing driving my tractor just to win this competition, I've been practicing because I need that skill on the farm. Remember, Sam, whatever you're doing in life always drive a straight furrow if you want to produce good growth."

And Sam did remember, all his life.

Questions

Why did Sam's dad really want straight rows on his farm?

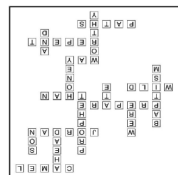

Why did John the Baptist ask us to make a straight path?
