Gospel for the Sixth Sunday of the Resurrection

Deut 31: 1-3 + 6-9

When Moses had finished speaking these words to all Israel, he said to them, I am now one hundred and twenty years old and am no longer able to go out and come in; besides, the LORD has said to me, Do not cross this Jordan. It is the LORD, your God, who will cross before you; he will destroy these nations before you, that you may dispossess them. It is Joshua who will cross before you, as the LORD promised. Be strong and steadfast; have no fear or dread of them, for it is the LORD, your God, who marches with you; he will never fail you or forsake you. Then Moses summoned Joshua and in the presence of all Israel said to him, "Be strong and steadfast, for you shall bring this people into the land which the LORD swore to their ancestors he would give them; it is you who will give them possession of it. It is the LORD who goes before you; he will be with you and will never fail you or forsake you. So do not fear or be dismayed." When Moses had written down this law, he gave it to the levitical priests who carry the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and to all the elders of Israel.

Romans 10:1-13

Brothers, my heart's desire and prayer to God on their behalf is for salvation. I testify with regard to them that they have zeal for God, but it is not discerning. For, in their unawareness of the righteousness that comes from God and their attempt to establish their own (righteousness), they did not submit to the righteousness of God. For Christ is the end of the law for the justification of everyone who has faith. Moses writes about the righteousness that comes from (the) law, "The one who does these things will live by them." But the righteousness that comes from faith says, "Do not say in your heart, 'Who will go up into heaven?' (that is, to bring Christ down) or 'Who will go down into the abyss?' (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead)." But what does it say? "The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart" (that is, the word of faith that we preach), for, if you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For one believes with the heart and so is justified, and one confesses with the mouth and so is saved. For the scripture says, "No one who believes in him will be put to shame." For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all, enriching all who call upon him. For "everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved."

Luke 24:36-48

While they were still speaking about this, he stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." But they were startled and terrified and thought that they were seeing a ghost. Then he said to them, "Why are you troubled? And why do questions arise in your hearts? Look at my hands and my feet, that it is I myself. Touch me and see, because a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you can see I have." And as he said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. While they were still incredulous for joy and were amazed, he asked them, "Have you anything here to eat?" They gave him a piece of baked fish; he took it and ate it in front of them. He said to them, "These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you, that everything written about me in the law of Moses and in the prophets and psalms must be fulfilled." Then he opened their minds to understand the scriptures. And he said to them, "Thus it is written that the Messiah would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day and that repentance, for the forgiveness of sins, would be preached in his name to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things.

In the Gospel of Luke, the risen Jesus appears to His disciples while they are still shaken and grieving. Into their fear and sorrow, He simply says, "Peace be with you."

This is where hope begins.

For those who mourn a loved one, this moment speaks deeply. The disciples believed death had the final word. Many of us feel the same in moments of loss.

But the Resurrection reveals a greater truth:

death is not the end.

Jesus does not return as a memory, but alive. He shows His wounds. He eats with them. What was broken is not erased, but transformed. And so it is with those we love. They are not lost. They are held in God.

He meets us gently and reminds us that life is stronger than death.

We hold to this promise:

If Christ is risen, then those who belong to Him are not gone forever.

The risen Christ walks with us, speaks peace into our hearts, and slowly leads us from sorrow into hope.

May His presence comfort all who mourn, and may the light of His Resurrection carry them forward.

All ladies of the parish, of every age, are warmly invited to join our through the Rosary, and live out a spirit of service within the parish of her Son, Jesus Christ.

Whether you are young or older, new to the parish or have been here for years, there is a place for you. The Sodality is not only about prayer, but also about building friendships, supporting one another in faith, and serving our church community with love.
