Gospel for the Fourth Sunday of Pentecost

Wis 7: 7-14

Therefore I prayed, and prudence was given me; I pleaded and the spirit of Wisdom came to me. I preferred her to scepter and throne, And deemed riches nothing in comparison with her, nor did I liken any priceless gem to her; Because all gold, in view of her, is a bit of sand, and before her, silver is to be accounted mire.

Beyond health and beauty I loved her, And I chose to have her rather than the light, because her radiance never ceases. Yet all good things together came to me with her, and countless riches at her hands; I rejoiced in them all, because Wisdom is their leader, though I had not known that she is their mother. Sincerely I learned about her, and ungrudgingly do I share her riches I do not hide away; For she is an unfailing treasure; those who gain this treasure win the friendship of God, being commended by the gifts that come from her discipline.

1 Corinthians 2:11-16

Among human beings, who knows what pertains to a person except the spirit of the person that is within? Similarly, no one knows what pertains to God except the Spirit of God. We have not received the spirit of the world but the Spirit that is from God, so that we may understand the things freely given us by God. And we speak about them not with words taught by human wisdom, but with words taught by the Spirit, describing spiritual realities in spiritual terms. Now the natural person does not accept what pertains to the Spirit of God, for to him it is foolishness, and he cannot understand it, because it is judged spiritually. The spiritual person, however, can judge everything but is not subject to judgment by anyone. For "who has known the mind of the Lord, so as to counsel him?" But we have the mind of Christ.

Luke 10:21-24

At that very moment he rejoiced (in) the holy Spirit and said, "I give you praise, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, for although you have hidden these things from the wise and the learned you have revealed them to the childlike. Yes, Father, such has been your gracious will. All things have been handed over to me by my Father. No one knows who the Son is except the Father, and who the Father is except the Son and anyone to whom the Son wishes to reveal him." Turning to the disciples in private he said, "Blessed are the eyes that see what you see. For I say to you, many prophets and kings desired to see what you see, but did not see it, and to hear what you hear, but did not hear it."

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

Saint George Church's Annual Lebanese Festival will be held on September 18, 19, and 20, 2026. Preparations have already begun to ensure the success of this wonderful community event. As always, the festival will feature our delicious Lebanese cuisine, live entertainment, and activities for the entire family to enjoy.

A major portion of the festival's fundraising efforts comes from our Banner Sponsorship Program and Grand Raffle Sale. Banners are available to individuals, families, and businesses and will be displayed throughout the festival grounds for the entire weekend.

- Black Diamond Sponsor — $5,000
- Diamond Sponsor — $2,500
- Platinum Sponsor — $1,000
- Gold Sponsor — $500
- Silver Sponsor — $250

These banners provide a wonderful opportunity to show your support for Saint George Church while promoting your family or business to the many guests expected to attend the festival.

Please complete the enclosed sponsorship form and return it in the enclosed self-addressed envelope or email it to us at stgeorgeri1@gmail.com.

Thank you for your support and consideration. We kindly ask that you respond at your earliest convenience.

Sincerely,

سلام المسيح!
