Ephesians 2:17-22

He came and preached peace to you who were far off and peace to those who were near, for through him we both have access in one Spirit to the Father. So then you are no longer strangers and sojourners, but you are fellow citizens with the holy ones and members of the household of God, built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Christ Jesus himself as the capstone. Through him the whole structure is held together and grows into a temple sacred in the Lord; in him you also are being built together into a dwelling place of God in the Spirit.

Luke 19:1-10

He came to Jericho and intended to pass through the town. Now a man there named Zacchaeus, who was a chief tax collector and also a wealthy man, was seeking to see who Jesus was; but he could not see him because of the crowd, for he was short in stature. So he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore tree in order to see Jesus, who was about to pass that way. When he reached the place, Jesus looked up and said to him,

"Zacchaeus, come down quickly, for today I must stay at your house." And he came down quickly and received him with joy. When they all saw this, they began to grumble, saying, "He has gone to stay at the house of a sinner." But Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord, "Behold, half of my possessions, Lord, I shall give to the poor, and if I have extorted anything from anyone I shall repay it four times over." And Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house because this man too is a descendant of Abraham. For the Son of Man has come to seek and to save what was lost."

Please note the directives of our Eparchy's Statutes in regards to FUNERALS applicable in our parish immediately

STATUTES OF THE EPARCHY OF SAINT MARON OF BROOKLYN

The Funeral

Statute 86. Ordinarily only clerics are to be waked in the church...

Statute 87. The funeral is to be celebrated with the Divine Liturgy. Preceding the Divine Liturgy, the celebrant meets the body at the main door of the church. He sprinkles it with Holy Water and incenses it as the hymn "Throw Open Your Gates" is sung. After the Divine Liturgy, the "Hymn of Incense" is to be sung as was done at the Wake.

Statute 88. A "funeral pall" is not to be used to cover the casket at a funeral.

Statute 89. In the event the family does not want to have the funeral in the church, the priest may conduct various prayers at the funeral home or graveside. The funeral Divine Liturgy is to be celebrated only in a Catholic Church or Chapel.

Statute 90. Funeral services of any kind are not to be celebrated on Sundays, Holy Days of Obligation, or during the Easter Triduum: Thursday of the Mysteries, Great Friday, and Saturday of the Light.

Statute 91. The priest is not to refuse anyone an ecclesiastical funeral without the permission of the Eparchial Bishop. It is the sole competence of the Eparchial Bishop to refuse an ecclesiastical funeral.

Statute 92. Although it is preferred that the body of the deceased be present for the funeral rites, cremation is permitted and the remains of the cremated bodies are to be treated with the same respect given to the corporal remains of a human body. These remains are to be present at the funeral Divine Liturgy, and must be buried in a cemetery or columbarium. The priest is not to refuse to celebrate the funeral of one who has been cremated without the permission of the Eparchial Bishop.

Statute 93. Eulogies by the laity may be given at the Wake, the cemetery, or the mercy meal. In the church, however, only the priest or deacon may deliver a eulogy which may be incorporated into his homily.

No eulogy is to be given by the laity in the church.

Banns of marriage between Carissa Marie Capaldi and Stephen Luis Veloso. If anyone knows cause or just impediment why these persons should not be joined together in the mystery of Crowning (Matrimony), please contact the Pastor.

Regrettably, and due to various reasons, the parish Festival 2021 is cancelled. A heartfelt thank you to those who offered to volunteer to work and make it a success.
